October Monthly Newsletter

Something is Coming

As we shift into fall, something sinister is stirring. We have been busy transforming otherwise angelic clients into devilishly elegant tricksters.

Halloween is almost here, and our clients are having lots of fun masquerading in their alter egos.

To see what evil lurks about, look at our Social Media pages. They are full of inspiring designs to enchant even the strongest of souls.

Planning a little wicked fun for the season? We're happy to bring your inner villain to life and leave everyone spellbound.

Jon Stewart

We were honored to work with Jon as he hosted the 2022 Department of Defense Warrior Games. This year the prestigious event was held at Walt Disney World.

Ashley Eckstein

Ashley was ready with her light sabers while debuting her new Star Wars fashion collection, Guided by the Light. Lucky for everyone, the dark side kept its distance, and she didn't need to use them!

CeeLo Green

We recently went on location at Universal Studios with CeeLo for an on-screen interview.
